

TAX-EXEMPT/NOT-FOR-PROFIT ORGANIZATIONS

OVERVIEW

Foulston Siefkin provides comprehensive tax planning and advocacy services to tax-exempt organizations. Our federal income tax counseling and planning services deal with all organizational and operational aspects of obtaining and maintaining tax exemption, including public charity status, and planning for appropriate operation of unrelated business activities. Our representation includes advice on strategies for the defense of audits, dealings with examining agents, obtaining private letter rulings from the IRS National Office, and representing clients through the administrative appellate process. Locally, our attorneys represent tax-exempt organizations across the state in a wide range of property, sales, and other tax-exemption issues.

Our attorneys have extensive litigation experience in federal courts across the country, including the U.S. Tax Court, U.S. District Courts, and the U.S. Court of Appeals.

We assist tax-exempt organizations and their development officers on current and deferred charitable giving matters, including gifts of cash, appreciated land or securities, personal residences, and other forms of real and personal property. We also work with clients and prospective donees in planned giving transactions using charitable remainder unitrusts and annuity trusts, charitable lead trusts, and pooled income funds.
