

FOULSTON SIEFKIN LLP ADDS FIVE ATTORNEYS

October 5, 2020

WICHITA, KAN. — New associate attorneys Gabriella Ferraro, Christopher Grause, Sabrina Hernandez, Emily Matta, and Nancy Musick have joined law firm Foulston Siefkin LLP. Ferraro, Grause, Hernandez, and Matta are based in the firm's Wichita office, while Musick will work in the firm's Overland Park office.

Ferraro is a member of the firm's healthcare law practice group. She received her J.D. from Washburn University School of Law and her undergraduate degree in political science from Benedictine College. As an undergraduate, Ferraro interned with the Hon. Pat Roberts in Washington, DC and served as a summer associate at Foulston for two years.

Grause has joined the firm's transactional law practice group. He received his J.D. from Washburn University School of Law and an undergraduate marketing degree from Washburn University as well. He served as a summer associate for Foulston for two years, and as a law clerk in the firm's Topeka office during the spring of 2019.

Hernandez, a member of Foulston's litigation practice group, received her J.D. from the University of New Mexico School of Law. In 2019, she was a Foulston summer associate, and interned for Hon. Jimmie V. Reyna at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. During law school, Hernandez volunteered in the Economic Justice Clinic. She earned her undergraduate degree in communication and Latina/os studies from San Francisco State University.

Matta, a member of the firm's employment and labor practice group, received her J.D. from the University of Kansas School of Law. A former Foulston summer associate, Matta also served as a judicial extern for Hon. Steven Leben at the Kansas Court of Appeals. She is a Wichita State University graduate, with a B.A. in history and political science.

Musick, who joined the firm's employment and litigation practice group in Kansas City, also received her J.D. from the University of Kansas School of Law. A Foulston summer associate in 2017 and 2018, Musick clerked for Hon. Daniel D. Crabtree for the 2019-2020 term. She earned an undergraduate degree in political science from Washburn University.
